

Introducing Jackson County Hidden Voice

March 29,
2025

The Pines
Evergreen Room

JCUW is bringing our own spin on a popular reality show right here to Jackson County! On Saturday, March 29th, the Jackson County Hidden Voice will make its debut at the Pines Evergreen Room in Seymour.

The Jackson County Hidden Voice is a nod to the famous “Masked Singer” TV show, which has run on Fox for 12 seasons. The singing competition brings together celebrities with concealed identities to perform songs for a panel of judges. As the contestants are eliminated, they unmask themselves for the audience, revealing their identities to those watching. The Jackson County version will feature eight local “celebrities” as they compete for the champion title.

Proceeds from the Jackson County Hidden Voice will support JCUW’s Annual Campaign, which funds local programming related to healthy living, youth opportunities, and financial security. In 2024, JCUW supported 16 community programs across 12 agencies by investing funds into these programs.

Sponsorships are available and range from $250-$2,000 and each package comes with its own benefits. Those interested in sponsoring the inaugural event can reach out to Elizabeth Copeland at 812-522-5450 ext. 3 or check out the link below.

We've Moved!

Starting January 1st, JCUW has moved its physical operations to a new location which better aligns with stewardship of donor dollars so that more funds are able to be allocated to local partnering organizations. Come visit us at our new office on 2nd St. between Seymour Crossfit and Crave Nutrition. A ribbon cutting with the Jackson County Chamber is scheduled for the spring.
